 Our Year In Review

Neighbors Served

In its 48th year, ACCA served our neighbors by providing:

- Quality care and early education for 267 children
- Rent, utility, and other payments for 516 households
- Food and other necessities for 1,043 households
- Gently used furniture for 345 households
- Rides to medical appointments for 72 people
- Daily meals to 50 elderly, disabled or homebound adults
- Repairs to a single family home and a group home for disabled adults
- College scholarships to four local students with disabilities
- Countless volunteer opportunities for individuals and groups in our community

We are grateful to our generous donors and volunteers. For a detailed account of our year and a listing of our organizational partners, see our FY2015 Annual Report online at ACCAcares.org.

About ACCA, Inc.

ACCA was named one of the best small non-profits in the Metro area by the Catalogue for Philanthropy.

ACCA's mission since 1967 has been "Doing what Jesus would do by serving our neighbors in need" in the Annandale, Lincolnia and Bailey's Crossroads areas.

There are two arms of ACCA, Inc. — the ACCA Child Development Center and ACCA Human Services.

The ACCA Child Development Center (CDC) provides high-quality early education and developmentally appropriate care for children ages 3 months to 5 years. The CDC employs professional staff and is licensed to serve 230 children. It has a 4-Star rating from the Virginia Star Quality Initiative.

ACCA Human Services ministries include Family Emergency Assistance, the Food Pantry, Furniture and Transportation to medical appointments. ACCA also supports Rebuilding Together, Meals on Wheels, college scholarships for students with disabilities, and the Annandale CROP Hunger Walk.

ACCA Human Services is run entirely by volunteers. In FY 2015, 98 percent of expenditures for these ministries went directly to helping our neighbors in need.

ACCA and You

"Whatsoever you do for the least of my people, that you do unto me." – Matthew 25:40

ACCA's work is made possible by its 26 member churches, more than 110 organizational partners, about 700 volunteers and more than 600 individual donors.

If you are looking for a way to give back to our community, consider volunteering for one of ACCA's many programs. Some volunteer jobs only require an hour or two every couple of months. ACCA also provides opportunities for students who need to perform community service. Email ACCAcares@verizon.net for more information on volunteer opportunities.

Community food drives and furniture donations provide an important source of in-kind support for ACCA's ministries.

There are many ways to support ACCA financially:

- Individual donations, either one-time or recurring
- Workplace giving through the Combined Federal Campaign, United Way, or an employer matching gift program
- Designating ACCA as a beneficiary in your will
- Through an ACCA member church

Donations via check can be mailed to ACCA at 7200 Columbia Pike, Annandale, VA 22003. ACCA also accepts online donations through the Catalogue for Philanthropy and PayPal. Visit ACCAcares.org for more information.

ACCA is a registered 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and contributions are tax deductible to the full extent allowed by law.
